Investor Readiness

Blu Sky's start up packages are designed for tech and digital start-ups that need a one stop finance solution. Covering all your compliance needs, our services cover wider-ranging specialisms which start-ups love, like R&D tax credit applications and SEIS/EIS application processing.

Our investor readiness services are designed to give you everything that a VC will need before you raise investment. That's strong and sturdy financial information provided accurately and in a timely manner.

We know what we are experts in and we know the areas better suited to other professionals and experts. We know from asking our clients. We offer the support and technical expertise the modern entrepreneur expects from their accountants.

Our services include (but are not limited to!):

- SEIS, EIS application processing and reviews (appealing to Business Angels is all part of investor readiness process)
- R&D tax credits – let's celebrate your innovative activity with a reduced tax bill or even cash back!
- Cloud accounting and business process set up – efficiency and consistency is key to realising your scale up potential
- VAT, Corporation Tax and every day tax planning – you need to get the basics right to have any chance of a smooth exit

We utilise our bespoke reporting engine (Blu Prints) to ensure that your financial information is displayed beautifully and in a way all parties will understand and take value from.

When you join Blu Sky as a client, you join the team.

Our internal structure means that every client gets a mini finance team and dedicated Account Manager looking after your account. We offer same day email response and the single point of contact means that Blu Sky develop a deep and strong understanding of the business and the business owner's history and needs.

Being investor-ready is about more than just the numbers. Investors invest in people and teams and when you're a Blu Sky client, you're a part of one of the UK's most invested tech and digital teams.

Our packages have helped start-ups from across the UK (and beyond) secure millions in Angel and VC funding and secured millions in R&D tax credits, but our expertise doesn't end with the numbers.

As part of the North's Angel network and mentors and partners at some of the UK's most prestigious Accelerators/Equity platforms/Tech ecosystems (Such as Ignite 100, Wayra, Rocketspace, Newcastle Start-up Week, Digital Union and Seedrs), Blu Sky's influence on early stage tech start-ups is profound.

So, if you would like to harness the expertise of the Blu Sky team act now and contact us.
